Your opportunity

If you're keen to excel, exploring new ideas and new ways of working with courage and tenacity, this role may be for you.

A note on language

The Commission acknowledges the importance of language and notes that there is not currently a consensus on the language used to define collective Lived-Living Experience. Lived-Living Experience may be conceptualised as a continuum of experiences which people may have at different times in their lives. The use of the hyphen signifies the fluidity or changing nature of our experiences along this continuum. The Commission thanks Lived-Living Experience leaders working in the Alcohol and Other Drugs (AOD) space for this approach. The Commission also recognises that many Lived-Living Experience leaders prefer to use the shorter term 'Lived Experience' and 'Lived Experience leader' to refer to both past and present experiences as they feel the definition offered below makes it clear that significant lived experiences changes the way individuals perceive themselves in the world forever.

For the purposes of this position description the term 'Lived Experience' is used to refer to people who identify as having direct personal experiences of mental ill-health, and/or harms related to the use of alcohol and other drugs (AOD) and/or suicidality which impacted their life in such a way as to be life changing or life-defining. Lived Experience also includes experiences relating to service access, supports and the broader health and wellbeing sector and through personal healing/recovery, self-determination in relation to harm reduction and reclaiming of full citizenship.

Lived Expertise is developed through advanced understanding and integration of the personal and collective experience in order to benefit all, uphold human rights and achieve system transformations.

Key Responsibilities

This key Lived Experience leadership role has a dedicated focus on delivering projects encompassing a 'Work Package' which will build the capability of Queensland's community sector to support the expansion and development of the Lived Experience (Peer) Workforces, inclusive of the family carer peer workforce and personal/consumer peer workforce, as a unique professional discipline. The successful applicant will have extensive previous experience, capability and confidence in leading from their Lived Expertise as well as developing comprehensive program logics and associated proposals and commissioning and contract management.

This position and associated project are funded by Queensland Health under Better Care Together, A plan for Queensland's state-funded mental health, alcohol and other drug services to 2027, to meet recommendation 54 of The Inquiry into the Opportunities to Improve Mental Health Outcomes for Queenslanders (2022) developed by the 57th Parliament Mental health Select Committee:

- d. investigates ways to encourage the uptake of lived experience roles by working to remove barriers, for example providing scholarships and reducing TAFE costs for requisite qualifications for lived experience (peer) mental health and alcohol and other drugs roles

The successful applicant will have demonstrated experience in effectively leading major projects related to developing Lived Experience (Peer) Workforce working strategically within a health, community services or related sector, preferably in mental health, AOD or suicide prevention with a track record in delivering outcomes in collaboration with a range of internal and external stakeholders.

The Commission is committed to achieving the highest levels of lived experience engagement and community involvement across all areas of its reform work with this leadership role being pivotal therefore superior knowledge and demonstrated experience in this area is essential.

The Commission is a small team with all staff members expected to work in an agile and collaborative manner, both in delivery of strategic and operational plans, meeting project deliverables, and in responding to emerging issues to meet its core functions of:
